Huge project to go on Campbell-Bascom site

By a unanimous vote the Planning Commission on Monday night approved site plans for a $6 to $10 million "tower" shopping center at Campbell and Bascom avenues. An 18-story office building, the highest in Santa Clara County, will dominate the Spanish-styled center.

The plans were submitted by Fred N. Sahadi, owner of plush apartments and other developments in Campbell. Sahadi purchased the 34-acre Brynteson Ranch at Campbell and Bascom avenues in February of this year.

In April, Sahadi offered to accommodate Campbell's city hall in a 17-story tower building, involving the use of city bond money. The proposed civic center tower was received with mixed reaction by city officials, businessmen and residents.

Sahadi later withdrew his offer to the city but indicated that the tower might be constructed anyway in partnership with Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel which has had the steel superstructure available for the high-rise tower.

Although the tower remains the focal point for the multi-million dollar cultural-commercial center, the shopping center, which will follow the Spanish motif in design will be a unique development for the area.

Little, if any, opposition is expected to develop against the project, the most ambitious ever undertaken within the city limits.

During the hectic weeks when the civic center tower concept was first under fire, many of those arguing against the idea indicated that they would heartily favor the tower if the city was not involved.

The Planning Commission on Monday, although approving the site plan as a whole indicated that approval would also be needed for the various phases of construction, which is expected to begin next spring.

Specifically approved Monday night was the parking and traffic circulation plan.

The site plan calls for 246,

Senior citizens plan appeal of planners' action

Leaders from the West Valley Senior City Action Center served notice at the Planning Commission meeting Monday night that they would appeal the action of the commission approving building plans for warehouse-offices on Gilman Ave.

Ed Rider, a center director, announced the intention to appeal after the commission by a 4-2 vote had approved the plans for two warehouse-offices on the same street.

That street is part of the so-called Railway-Dillon-Gilman "blighted" area now zoned M-1-S (light industrial) which under the '701' master plan has been recommended to be changed to medium and high density residential.

Both the Planning Commission and the City Council have approved the recommendation. However, no official action has been taken as yet to change the zone.

The plans for the two

Students to "take over" city hall next Tuesday

Students from four high schools in the Campbell area (Campbell, Del Mar, Westmont and Prospect) will "take-over" the city hall in Campbell next Tuesday, Nov. 12.

Assuming the duties of councilmen and city department heads for the "Student Government Day" will be 15 high school students. The student-city-officials will be luncheon guests of the Campbell Kiwanis Club from 12 noon to 1:30 p.m. at the Country Woman's Club.

The day's program will end in the council chambers at the City Hall at 7:30 p.m. when the student city officials will meet with the City Council and report on the day's activities. Because of the holiday on Monday, the Council is meeting on Tuesday.

Certificates will be awarded the student participants by Mayor Bill Smeed.

The students will be out of class only in the morning. They will return to classes at 1:45 p.m.

Student Government Day next Tuesday is the first of two activities as part of American Education Week (Nov. 10-16).

On Thursday, Nov. 14, the Campbell Chamber of Commerce is joining with the schools of the Campbell area and local service clubs in sponsoring the annual Education-Business Day.

Members of the business community will spend their mornings in an educational facility of their choice (St. Lucy's; Campbell elementary

YOUTHFUL GARDENERS–Lorrie Bryant, student body president at Campbell Elementary School and Brian Carter, who holds a like office at St. Lucy's School, pitched in and represented their "constituents" in a one-day instant mini-park tree and shrub-planting of the Alice Ave. park on Saturday morning. Volunteer labor transformed the vacant lot in the space of a few hours into a landscaped park. Much of the material and plants used were donated. Park coordinator Jeanette Watson says the park committee is desperately seeking donations of paving materials and equipment to complete the park's walkway. Also needed are two finished redwood benches.

OUT ON THE LIMB with George Vierhus

ABSTAINING USED TO be what some of us did about eating meat on Friday.

We ate fish instead.

But that long-time church restriction was lifted some time ago. So now one is on his own, more or less, in the "abstaining" from eating meat on Friday.

But we still generally eat fish on Friday.

Maybe it is because of habit or it is because we are fond of finny food in the first place.

That was not, however, what we wanted to talk about here.

We got off on that tack and onto that track because we noted there seems to have been an increase lately "abstaining" in the casting of ballots in some local issues.

So it just reminded us that the "abstaining" we had been most familiar with over the years had to do with meat not votes.

That is a wee bit far-fetched.

But then look at who is writing this?

"TO REFRAIN OR HOLD back voluntarily from doing or enjoying something" is the way "to abstain" is defined in the dictionary.

And, of course, "abstention", is defined as (1) holding or refraining; (2) withholding of one's vote.

There are times, of course, because of a conflict of interest when abstaining in voting is necessary.

But in most other cases it is just an exercise in fence-sitting.

One then can't be accused in those cases of being on either side. Sort of a mugwump, you might say. (For those who want that word defined, please call us later.)

Our failure to make any recommendation in the U.S. Senate race in last week's traditional editorial endorsements of candidates could be cited as a bad case of "absentionitus".

Others would have another name for it.

However, quite frankly, we did not know which way to go in that particular case.

So then how could we tell you?

-0-

BUT ABSTAINING DOES not necessarily mean one doesn't know which side one is on.

Take the case, for example, of Vice-Mayor Homer Hyde. Now, Homer because of circumstances undoubtedly uses "abstain" more often than any one in city office.

As general manager of the Campbell Water Co., a privately-owned company, in addition to being a councilman, Homer "abstains" on voting on any issue in which the water company could be involved because of the possibility of conflict of interest.

But there was no conflict of interest involved for Homer at the recent council balloting on the raising of the retainer fee of City Attorney Joe Bonacina from $800 to $1200 per month which, incidentally, made Joe one of the highest paid part-time city attorneys in the state. Officially Councilman Dean Chamberlin cast the long negative vote against the pay hike.

Homer abstained. But he had indicated previously that he opposed the increase.

But the record only shows that Councilman Hyde abstained.

That's like wading in a stream with your shoes on.

BUT AT A DOWNTOWN redevelopment committee meeting, the "abstainers" almost had a majority.

The vote was on the question of the so-called "wide loop" concept for downtown Campbell Ave.

Although there apparently will never be complete unanimity as to what should be done about improving Campbell Ave., the loop plan seems to have met with the greatest acceptance.

This plan calls for streets on either side of Campbell Ave. to carry the through

Youth involvement

There has been in recent months a determined effort locally to involve the youngsters of the community of high school age and older in communitywide projects.

We are heartily in accord with this effort.

On Tuesday, Nov. 12, students from four Campbell district high schools, Del Mar, Westmont, Prospect and Campbell, will participate in student government at the city hall.

Each of the 16 students (four from each school) will have a definite assignment involving a city official. Five, for example, will serve as councilmen (there will be a City Council meeting on Tuesday night).

One student, of course, will serve as city manager. Others will assume the other roles that are necessary in the operation of our city. There will be a student police chief, a fire chief, a city clerk, public works director, street superintendent, etc.

We sincerely feel that this effort to involve and interest the local high school students in their community government is an extremely worthwhile program.

The experience the students will gain in this one-day exposure to city governmental procedures should serve as an invaluable visual aid to the students in the future when they become regular "card-carrying", i.e. voting citizens.

All of us will agree that it is of vital concern to all that the interest of the young people should be stimulated in governmental activities.

Probably there has been no time in history in which the young people, especially at the college level, have demonstrated so vociferously or at least so conspicuously against the so-called establishment.

Although the college-age "demonstrators" only represent a small segment of the total student population, they are probably more articulate than at any other time in history. Thus are getting wider exposure.

We, therefore, sincerely believe that it is highly important that our high school students become "involved" in local governmental procedures so that they can be exposed to the local problems and what efforts are being made to overcome them.

Hopefully by this "exposure" they will then understand that government, from the local level on up, need not be all bad, for they should learn that it is the people who make up the government.

Undoubtedly the high school kids next Tuesday will get a number of questions answered that have been bothering them.

They should also learn that, on the whole, decent God-fearing people make a government go and politicians are not all mean and vicious.

Of special interest to the students will probably be the law-enforcement area.

Unfortunately in too many instances, contact with the police is the only relationship the youngsters have in local government.

Citizens of the City of Campbell are proud of their police department and they have every right to be.

Our city police under Chief John Morgan have established good rapport with the young people.

But it is important that the young people realize that there is more to local government than just the police department.

Therefore next Tuesday the student government day at the city hall should not only be beneficial to them but to all of us.

It is also planned to involve the students to a greater extent than ever before in the third annual Congress for Community Progress which will take place next March.

Not only will the students be invited to take part in the various discussion panels where they can offer their own thoughts as to what they think a community should be but they will be asked to assist in the planning for the congress.

A group of students will have active roles in conducting the congress.

We have long advocated that total involvement of the citizenry of any community is imperative, if a community is to become a better place in which to live and work.

And "total involvement" includes young people, the middle-aged and the senior citizens. All have a part to play in a community's life.

We hear much about the so-called "generation gap". We suppose there is some basis to the theory that we oldsters don't know what the young people are looking for.

If the "gap" does exist, then getting people involved in these community projects seems to us the right way to bridge the "gap".

traffic with the present Campbell Ave. improved by not widened.

The new civic center gets involved in the whole ball of wax because its location is dependent to a great extent on what is to happen to Campbell Ave.

Anyway at the downtown committee meeting there were almost as many "abstainers" as there were those in favor of the loop.

As there were no opposing votes, the loop plan "carried".

Unanimously? ?

That's a good point.

But abstaining seems to leave things up in the air.

So it is really not a bad way to fly. An abstainer, if something falls on its face, can always say he didn't vote for it.

Of, if it is highly successful, he did not vote against it.

EVEN IN BEN GOULD'S hard-working Congress for Community Progress committee which has been meeting on Sunday night to plan for the third Congress next March, there have been "abstainers".

But there the case was a little different.

The vote was on the theme for the Congress, a question that had been tossed around a number of previous meetings and it had to be decided.

The "abstainers" weren't overly-enthusiastic about the suggested theme.

But they didn't have any better ideas.

IF YOU LIKE PANCAKES, and most of us do, you can do a good turn as well as enjoy an excellent breakfast, on Sunday, Nov. 24, at the San Tomas Village Market.

Proceeds from the breakfast will go to the Jack Fischer Scholarship fund. This scholarship provides $100 to either a Westmont or Campbell High student entering West Valley College.

Jack Fischer, in whose memory the scholarship has been set up, was a long-time principal of the San Tomas School. The community was saddened two years ago by the untimely death of this popular school administrator.

Bill Henley, who retired as Campbell Union School District superintendent in 1965 after 16 years of service, is the honorary chairman for the breakfast. Mrs. James Meyer is general chairman.

The goal is to raise $2000.

And that will take a lot of hot cakes. They can use your appetite and help.

WE NEVER CEASE TO be amazed at what a group of dedicated civic-minded citizens can accomplish, if their efforts are directed into the same channel.

Each time some objective is reached by a small group of citizens, we always envision what could be achieved communitywide if the number of people participating in a civic project was multiplied 10 or more times.

The city-owned miniature park at Alice Ave. and Winchester now is being called an "instant park" as a result of the activities of a group of 25 or so people last Saturday morning.

That vacant lot which the city acquired when Winchester Blvd. was widened and improved was literally transformed in less than three hours by the efforts of a group of public-spirited citizens.

Even the most unimaginative soul can now visualize how attractive that mini-park is going to be as a result of the landscaping endeavors of the group on Saturday who despite the threatening weather, did a great job.

Jeanette Watson, as chairman of the city's beautification committee, deserves a tremendous amount of credit for spearheading the drive to make the park a reality.

Approximately $500 was contributed (considerable from Alice Ave. residents) toward the job but the real heart-warming bit of the whole deal was the volunteer labor that showed up.

As an example of civic cooperation–we spotted two former presidents of the Kiwanis Club (Steve and Harry M.) and the president-to-be (Frank K.) plus a number of other Kiwanians working on Saturday. A councilman and the fire chief were digging away, as were many others.

Incidentally trees were planted by kids from St. Lucy's and Campbell Grammar.

But we repeat.

The mini-park came about through efforts of a mini-group of civic-minded citizens.

Just think what could happen, if the group was maxi.

Or even midi.

An outstanding name-coincidence occurred in the assignment of the student to take over the position of public works superintendent.

Kenneth Heckman, a student from Del Mar, will be the stand-in for Kenneth Hickman, public works superintendent.

buildings on Gilman were submitted by Ed Williams for 80 Gilman Ave. and by Derol F. Briscoe at 186 Gilman.

Action on the plans for the warehouse-office for Williams had been deferred and continued for some time. City Attorney Joe Bonacina cautioned the commission that action could not be deferred indefinitely.

Changing the zone to multiple zoning so that low-rental housing can be constructed in the area for senior citizens was strongly advocated by the West Valley Senior Citizen Center.

Chamber of Commerce directors, on the other hand, have opposed the zone change because many industrial buildings have been built in the area in recent years and more are contemplated. It would be extremely costly, Lowell Grattan, C of C spokesman, has emphasized to move out the industrial buildings now. But without their removal, no high density buildings can be constructed, he adds.

Commissioner Kel Young, emphasized that the City Council should have started rezoning proceedings at the last meeting if it was to be done, because the application of Williams had been filed for some time.

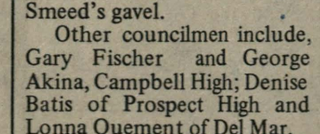
He maintained the commission had no recourse but to approve the plans because they met the present zoning regulations.

Commissioner Jack Healey disagreed. He claimed that the Council and Commission had indicated that they would eventually rezone the area and thus it was not right to approve plans for buildings that would not be compatible.

Siding with Healey on the vote was Dale Scott. Joining Young in the voting were, Thayer Lyons, Merrill Grim and Chairman Frank Klein.

In other actions, the commission denied the application of Harold Martin for a "free standing" photo supply and service building in the Kirkwood Plaza but approved plans for a warehouse at 203 Kennedy submitted by Earl W. Doise.

Approval was also given a zone change for the Gomes property which would allow commercial zoning on the south side of Hamilton between Central and Esther.



RAIN DROPS

Indications for a rainy winter are at hand according to figures released from the Campbell Water Company for the rainfall to date.

Rainfall inches to date totalled 1.36 at Tuesday morning.

Over the weekend .94 inches of rain fell. Normal for the year at this date stands at 1.02 inches with last years total at .14 inches.

Only 1.33 inches had fallen at the end of Nov. 1967, so the Campbell area rainfall total is already above average. More rain is scheduled for later in the week.

"Tower" center

000 square feet of retail space in the Spanish-styled center surrounding a "gran plaza" and featuring tiled-covered walkways with malls and "patios".

In addition to the 124,000 square feet of office space that will be in the tower, a twin-screen theater is planned with 18,000 square feet.

The traffic and parking plan was described in detail by Bruce Moody, architect for the project, and supplemented by Bill Wren, public works director, and Art Kee, planning director.

The plan specifies that 1728 parking spaces will be available. There will be entrances into the center from both Bascom and Campbell avenues. The lanes will be designed to allow for a continuous flow of traffic throughout the center.

One lane, it was explained, will completely circle the area on the inside to allow for freer movement of traffic.

Parking will be diagonal in the shopping center and horizontal at the offices.

According to Sahadi, when the development is completed it will exceed in size the Almaden Plaza Shopping Center and fall only about 15 per cent short of equaling the Valley Fair complex.

West Valley College enrollment indicates population mobility

Indications of the mobility of the population in this area are seen in the breakdown of statistics regarding the 8,200 day and evening students now attending West Valley College, according to Dr. Wallace W. Hall, college president.

Of the total number, only 69 per cent of the regular day students and only 24 per cent of the evening students were graduated from public high schools within the West Valley College district, he reported.

The study also indicates that 60 per cent of those students graduated from local high schools are from the Campbell Union High School District, another 25 per cent are from the Santa Clara Unified School District, and the remaining 15 per cent from the Los Gatos Joint Union High School District.

They found that the families in the West Valley College district tended to move on an average of every three years as compared with the national average of a move every five years.

Those enrolled from the high schools within the District are:

CAMPBELL: Camden, 427; Campbell, 415; Blackford, 401; Leigh, 367; Del Mar, 331; Westmont, 300; Branham, 73; Campbell Evening, 54. Next year, graduates from the new Prospect High School will be added.

SANTA CLARA: Santa Clara, 338; Buchser, 320; Wilcox, 256; and Peterson, 56.

LOS GATOS: Los Gatos, 367; Los Gatos Evening, 14; and Saratoga, 210.

Campbell beat Branham last Friday with a winning score of 40-21. This made Campbell another step closer to winning the title again this year. Campbell led the halftime with a score of 27-0. Mark Cunningham, Mike Beeson (2), Randy Fujishin, Pete Dardinelli and Larry Power made touchdowns for the Bucs. The game was exciting and the team played well.

The Frosh-Soph team was also victorious last Thursday against Branham.

This week, we play Westmont. The Frosh-Soph play Thursday at 3 on Westmont's field. The Varsity play on Friday at 3 on Campbell's turf.

Final services for Mrs. Bishop

Funeral services were held last week for Genevieve Goodacre Bishop, 84, 801 Winchester Blvd. who passed away Oct. 27, following a short illness.

Westmont Wails

By Keith Hohlfedlt

Westmont lost another tight one again to Camden last Friday with a score of 13-12. The Warriors were way out in front with a 12 to 0 score until the third quarter when the Cougars intercepted several of Craig Chelonis' passes and ran them to make touchdowns. Camden made a conversion to put them ahead by one point. Both Westmont's extra points were blocked.

This loss was quite a blow to Westmont because Camden had not won any games either previous to this heart breaker. The Warriors haven't won a game all season.

The Warriors undefeated record of no losses in two years has been defeated. They have lost their last three meets to Campbell by two points, to Del Mar by one point and to Camden by one point. These losses were mainly due to the absence of two varsity key runners, Scott McVay and Ron Garcia.

Westmont's mock presidential election held last Thursday predicted that the Hubert Humphrey and Edmond Muskie team would win the presidential position. They won by 26 votes. It was a close election. The Democrat Alan Cranston won the election for United States Senator and Charles Gubser, Republican, won the election for Representative in Congress for the tenth district. Write-ins for president consisted of Eugene McCarthy receiving 30 votes; Pat Paulson, receiving 18 votes; and Dick Gregory, receiving two votes. Out of the 757 students who registered, 690 voted.

Juniors, Nancy Leone and Lorie Focho from Westmont have been selected as district finalists in the American Abroad Program sponsored by AFS.

Westmont's paper drive is underway and will continue until Nov. 29.

The German Honor Soceity at Westmont is selling scented candles with reusable brandy snifters for Christmas. They have sold about $250 worth of candles in only three weeks of sales. The candles seem to be selling better than the candy, Christmas cards or anything else that other clubs are trying to peddle. The sale will continue until the beginning of Christmas vacation.

Del Mar Dateline

By Janice Hallyburton and Molly Ford

Six qualified Del Mar students were chosen to be counselors at Redwood Glen for a week. They counseled sixth grade students at Redwood Glen School, in the Santa Cruz mountains where the youngsters had the opportunity to observe science in its natural surroundings.

The students from Del Mar are Ron Ardizzone, Sue Alessio, Molly Ford, Karen Freitas, Mary Jo Riley and Debbie Seese, all seniors.

Mr. Ken Wallace, senior counselors at Del Mar, considers this program highly beneficial for any senior interested in entering the teaching field.

Even though Redwood Glen is operated for the benefit of the sixth graders the Del Mar seniors feel they also gained from the experience.

The juniors also seem to be having their own experiences this year. The Junior Magazine Sale for the class of "70" is in full swing. Their sales goal is $6,400 in subscriptions, which is $300 over last years total. The juniors will receive 25% of the total sales intake for their events coming up for the next two years, such as the Junior Prom, Senior Ball and Senior Sneak Day.

The individual students will receive with three subscriptions, a pass to the Shakey's Pizza party; with $50 of subscriptions, a stereo record album of their choice, and the top three salesmen will receive special prizes.

For the first time in the history of Del Mar, Interact, an all boys club, has gone co-ed. This year the girls make up 40% of the club.

Future plans for Interact are sponsoring a car rally and the annual hootenanny. Interact officers are Ed Yeager, president, Jeff Hauggard, vice-president; Karen Monahan, secretary; Treasurer is Ann Hemmings and Carl Sanfillipo is Sergeant-at-arms.

Camden Chatter

By Diane Carman

Whether or not ghosts actually exist is usually an irreconcilable question; but there's no doubt about it in this year's Senior Play–ghosts do exist.

Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit" will be performed by seven seniors on Nov. 22 - 23. The story revolved around a widower (Jay Corbett) who has remarried. The man and his second wife (Marta Corbett) invite some friends (Steve Olivera and Charlene Anderson) and a spiritual medium (Laurie Dawson) to their house for dinner. The man's first wife (Beth Billmaier) appears as a result of a seance that evening. A maid (Sherri Abby) is also present during the proceedings.

Tryouts for the comedy were held on Oct. 16 and 17. Tickets will be on sale for $1 by any member of Drama Commission during the week prior to the play.

Who'll be the next president of the United States? Camden students will be able to decide for themselves in a mock national election on Monday, Nov. 4. Students will be voting for the same candidates and propositions that are on the regular election ballot in accordance with their own assembly district. Voter registration took place from Oct. 28 to 30. No student will be allowed to vote unless he has registered.

Campaigns were waged during both lunches in the cafeteria and quad area on Wed., Thurs. and Fri. of last week.

Friday, Nov. 1, Camden whacked the wobbly Westmont Warriors with a 13 to 12 score for the Cougar's first win, bringing the total score up to 14-1.

Oct. 26, hampered by injuries, the Varsity football team met the undefeated Campbell Buccaneers on their field losing 33-6. The only Camden score came on a 27 yard pass by quarterback Jim Holmes, to wingback Ted Sheldon.

Camden's tie score came when the Cougars met Prospect on our field, Oct. 19, for a score of 18-18. Touchdowns were scored by fullback Wayne Atchison (2), and quarterback, Jim Holmes (1).

Noted correspondent, famed author to speak at WV College

Two highly interesting, if diverse, speakers will appear under the auspices of the Office of Community Services of West Valley College in the coming days.

They are John Peer Nugent, famed Newsweek correspondent, whose reports on Africa have been widely quoted, and C. Northcote Parkinson, author of the famed "Parkinson's Law."

Nugent will appear at 8 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 7, at Del Mar High School, 1224 Del Mar Ave., San Jose.

Parkinson will appear at 8 p.m., Monday, Nov. 18 at Emil R. Buchser High School in Santa Clara.

"The location of these meetings in different high schools within West Valley Junior College District is a part of the college's desire to take these desirable programs to different parts of the district as a convenience to our constituents," William H. Deal, Coordinator of Community Services, stated.

"Parkinson's Law" is based on the theory that work "expands so as to meet the time and personnel available for its completion."

Nugent's topic "Call Africa 999" has been described as "the wildest adventure story ever." He tells of his journeying from the Congo to Zanzibar, surviving beatings, firing squads, cannibal attacks and, what he himself describes as "a good reporter's proudest moment–banishment for writing the truth."

Professor Parkinson is an expert at "pricking balloons" with his astute analysis of the "law" governing business operations and smaller units (such as families). He has also written "In Laws and Outlaws" which explores corporate climbing through such expediencies as marrying the boss' daughter.

"The Law and the Profits" discovers how expenses rise to meet (and even surpass) income. He is also an expert on "the cocktail party method of personnel selection"; "how to manage (and mismanage) your personal finances, and many other tongue-in-cheek philosophies."

HOSPITALIZED

Rev. Corwin H. Olds, 210 N. Second St., is presentlv hospitalized at the Oak Knoll Hospital in Oakland where he is receiving treatment. Cards may be addressed to his home or to Brig. Gen. C.H. Olds. U.S. Ret. Rm 604, Oak Knoll Hospital, Oakland.

TOY COLLECTION

The Campbell Fire Dept. at 51 N. Central Avenue, has been designated as a collection point for used toys which will be distributed by the student nurses at O'Connor Hospital at Christmas time for the patients and for needy children.

HOLD HIGH THE TORCH--Gloria Duncan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don E. Duncan of 250 Sondra Way, was capped recently by Susan Day, a second year student, at the special ceremony held for 53 nursing education students held at Pacific Union College.

The college is a Seventh Day Adventist Coed college located in Napa Valley. Duncan is the pastor of the Los Gatos Seventh Day church.

Girl Scouts

BY NAN WARREN

They say "opportunity knocks but once" ...Don't you believe it!

Opportunity will knock three times – not just for women connected with Girl Scouting, but for every woman in the Santa Clara Valley and those of our own community of Campbell. As a special service, your local Girl Scout Council will present "Woman Power - A Community Forum" with top speakers from northern California. Get the facts on many perplexing problems of our time.

Session I, Nov. 12 - Communication and the Generation Gap; Session II, Nov. 19- Drug Abuse; and Session III, Nov. 26 - Civil Rights and Social Wrongs. All sessions from 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Calvary Methodist Church, Naglee and Morse, San Jose (one block south of the Alameda). Bring a sack lunch–coffee will be served. This course is offered free of charge. This forum has been designed especially for you.

This is your opportunity. Please plan to come and bring your friends – bridge club, garden club, etc., to one or all of these stimulating events. These are today's problems that vitally concern everyone of us whether a mother, housewife or business woman.

HARD CANDIES

The confectionery industry is the largest user of corn syrup, mainly in hard candies.

BAZAAR

1958 reunion held recently

The Campbell area boasted the most residents attending the recent Santa Clara High School class of 1958 reunion. A delightful dinner was enjoyed by the 200 former members of the class who had the opportunity of meeting with William Duran, Dean Giles and Wayne Garton, former teachers at the school who taught during the four years the 1958 class spent at the school.

Campbell resident, J. A. Miles was given one of the prizes for having the most children, tying with John Gallizioli.

Dancing to the music of Paul King rounded off the evening affair.

Police record few Halloween night pranks

No unusual activity was reported to the Campbell police department on Halloween night, other than a few isolated instances of rotten eggs being thrown at cars and one report of paint throwing.

Trick and treaters appeared early in the evening, most of them disguised as "hippies" rather than the traditional ghosts and witches, and by 9 p.m. they were nearly all tucked in bed, or home gloating over their "loot".

Several instances of tape decks being stolen from cars were reported during the week and Robert Perfect, 733 Crockett, turned in a report that car parts valued at $265 were taken from his back yard during the week. Several stolen cars were also logged in the police file and runaway juveniles continued to cause their parents anxiety.

Minor traffic accidents were also recorded, but for the most part the Campbell police department had a light work week.

Local soldier receives combat infantry badge

There is one Army badge that only combat infantrymen can wear - The Combat Infantryman Badge. It was recently awarded to Specialist Four Robert R. Catalano near Pleiku, Vietnam.

Spec. Catalano, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Catalano, 1787 Ensenada Dr., Campbell, is assigned as a mortarman with the 4th Infantry Division.

The CIB has been awarded since late in World War II for sustained ground contact against an enemy. It is not awarded to members of other combat arms, such as artillery, armor or engineers.

In honor of its singular meaning, the badge is worn above all other awards and decorations, over the left breast. It is a blue rectangle with a silver rifle mounted on it and a curved wreath at the top. Subsequent awards are represented by stars in the center of the wreath.

His wife, Lolita, lives at 455 W. Rincon, Campbell.

Breathing tests offered public

Free breathing tests are still being offered each Monday from 10 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 3:30 p.m. at the offices of the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Santa Clara-San Benito Counties, 1144 N. Fourth St., San Jose.

Those wishing tests must be over 35 years of age. The test is administered to detect the possible presence of such respiratory diseases as emphysema, asthma and chronic bronchitis.

ORDINANCE NO. 655

BEING AN ORDINANCE OF CITY OF CAMPBELL AMENDING SECTION 6300 OF CHAPTER 3, ARTICLE VI OF THE CAMPBELL MUNICIPAL CODE, ENTITLED BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS, AND ADDING SECTION 6300 (A) TO PROHIBIT CARD ROOMS AND DECLARING THIS ORDINANCE TO BE AN URGENCY MEASURE.

The City Council of City of Campbell does ordain as follows:

SECTION ONE: That Section 6300 of Chapter 3, Article VI of the Campbell Municipal Code entitled Business and Professions, be, and the same is hereby amended so as to delete therefrom the license provision for card rooms and tables contained in subdivision 6 of Section 6300.

SECTION TWO: That Section 6300 (a) be added to Chapter 3, Article VI of the Campbell Municipal Code entitled Business and Professions, to read as follows:

The business of conducting public card rooms, or the renting, hiring, allowing and permitting card rooms, or the use of space in any business establishment for card playing, is hereby prohibited in the City of Campbell. All ordinances, sections and provisions of the Campbell Municipal Code in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

SECTION THREE: This ordinance is hereby declared to be for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety and general welfare of the people of the City of Campbell, and it is hereby enacted as an urgency ordinance to take effect immediately upon adoption. A declaration of the facts constituting this urgency is as follows:

1. That heretofore the City Council of City of Campbell did adopt Chapter 3 of Article VI of the Campbell Municipal Code, entitled Business and Professions, containing in the category of businesses to be licensed and regulated, card rooms and tables therein, with no specific provisions for regulating the same.

2. That the City Council has directed a study to be made for the purpose of considering regulatory and prohibitive legislation which will require considerable time. That there are at present no public card rooms operating and licensed in said city. That there is a threatened establishment of several card rooms, and applications therefor would have to be acted upon before a complete study could be made and legislation prepared.

3. That the establishment of such card rooms would create a grave and unique problem for City of Campbell, and would unduly increase policing and enforcement problems.

4. That City of Campbell is a suburban community predominantly residential, with many churches and schools, and that the establishment of public card rooms will seriously effect the unique character of the community, its peace, health, and safety, and the general welfare of the people of the City of Campbell.

Campbell tops campaign goal for United Fund

The City of Campbell last week became the third Santa Clara Valley community to top its 1968 United Fund campaign goal.

According to local United Fund chairman, Robert E. Harrison, plant manager of IBM, local volunteers have exceeded their $50,198 pre-campaign goal by more than two percent.

Campbell stands with the communities of Milpitas and Cambrian Park as one of the leaders in this year's massive campaign effort to raise $3.1 million in support of 81 separate charitable agencies throughout Santa Clara County

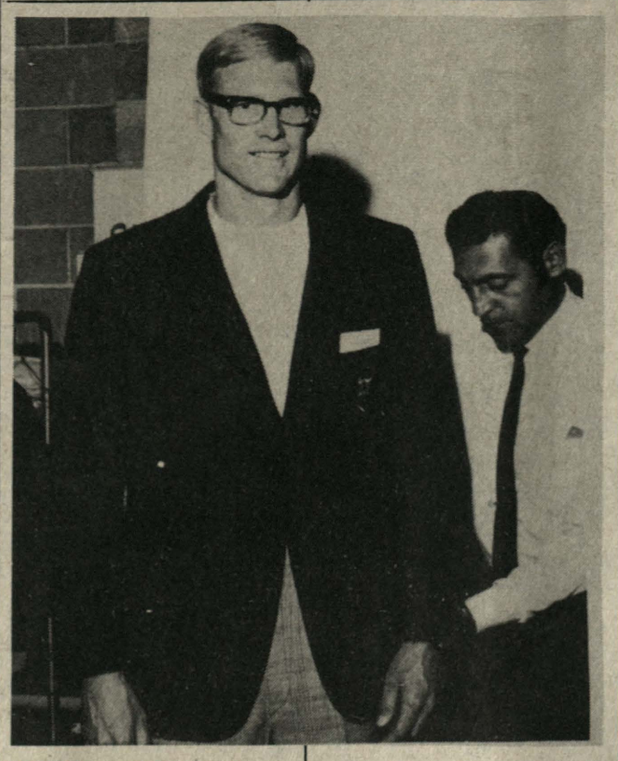
Harrison commended the volunteer workers who helped to make the drive a success. He singled out for special recognition, Neal Royer, superintendent of the Campbell Union School District, who headed this year's business division for United Fund.

In the drive the business division exceeded its goal by 26 per cent and more than doubled the 1967 contribution.

Harrison added that the local city employes' campaign, which was led by City Manager Bob Stephens, was highly successful.

Workers in this division exceeded their goal by 27 per cent.

County-wide United Fund's 10th Anniversary campaign has reached more than 80 per cent of its total goal.



TOOK FIFTH PLACE–Steven Barnett, 25, 953 Michael Dr., was one of the members of the United States Olympic water polo team which took fifth place in the recent Olympic games in Mexico. This is the highest placing that the team has ever received and the group was very happy with the outcome. Barnett, who is an aquatic sports teacher at Cupertino High, played goalee for the team. The team alternated goalees and Barnett is very happy to report that the team lost no games during the time he was goalee.

Out of the entire eight games played, one game was lost to the Russians, and one to the Hungarians. A Camden high school graduate, Barnett is a member of the Foothill College Aquatic Club. He was accompanied by his wife and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Barnett, 1964 Rosswood Dr. Mrs. Barnett's parents from Riverside also made the trip. In the above photo, Steve is being fitted for his Olympic Parade uniform.

HARRIERS LOSE

The DeAnza Dons crushed the West Valley College harriers dreams of a Camino Norte Conference championship last Friday as they defeated the Vikings 20 to 38. Both squads went into the meet with identical 4 and 0 records with the winning team set to come out as the league champs.

IN VIETNAM

Marine Private Marvin W. Brown, 20, of 831 Virginia Ave., Campbell, is serving with the First Marine Division in South Vietnam.

A LEGAL OPINION?--Prospect Principal Verdan Romer asks advice of "city attorney" Kevin Barnes during warming up exercises for Nov. 12 student government day, when student leaders from four local high schools will step into the shoes of City of Campbell department heads and spend the day "governing" the city.

WILL THE REAL--PLEASE STAND UP?--Larry Gilliam looks over the shoulder of Evelyn Adamson, city planning assistant, while she explains to Wally Byron, building department official, and his "alter ego" Paul Tokunaga, what's going to happen on Student Government Day, Nov. 12, when 15 student leaders from four local high schools assume the roles of Campbell city department heads and elected officials.

BUZZ, BUZZ--Harry Mayfield, Kiwanis club past prexie, and Joe Mongiovi, Campbell Water Co. employee, develop aching muscles as they add their services to those of the many volunteers who participated in a one-day "instant" park planting in what was formerly an empty lot on the corner of Winchester Blvd. and Alice Ave. Use of the gasoline powered-posthole digger was donated by a local tool rental agency, the Toolshed.

Chuck Hawthorne stars at WSU

Washington State's exciting Frosh football team is directed by quarterback Chuck Hawthorne, former Campbell High grid star.

The Cougars swamped the University of Washington Pups 50-29 with Hawthorne passing for two touchdowns, running for two more and setting up a fifth. He had 114 yards rushing on 23 carries and completed eight of 15 passes for 156 yards.

Hawthorne is only 5-9 and weighs 165.

VIKINGS LEAD

The league leading West Valley College grid squad will journey to Santa Rosa next Friday night to challenge cellar dwelling Santa Rosa Junior College at 8 p.m. in Camino Norte Conference action.

The Vikings ran over the Solano Falcons last Saturday night by a 27 to 7 margin in a rain hampered CNC contest.

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

In each two-year span, I write 104 issues of ON CAPITOL HILL. One hundred and three of them are written with varying degrees of difficulty. But the 104th–this one–is by far the most difficult. This issue must be set in type by election date, Nov. 5, but it won't be read until the votes have been counted and the winners determined.

Though I have reasonable expectations of being reelected, a glowing victory statement will look ridiculous if I lose. Conversely, I can't enthusiastically write about losing.

Faced with such a dilemma two days after the last election and 728 days before the next one, this might be a good time to give you the innermost candid feelings of a candidate whose career is at stake in a reelection campaign.

An incumbent has some advantage if he has done a reasonably good job. He has had the benefit of contact with the people he represents, and the prestige of being in office usually outweighs the brickbats that come with it. On the other hand, the candidate who is "out" has no record to defend and is not tied down to doing the job he was elected to do at a place three thousand miles from his constituency.

Legislation and voting records are such complicated matters that a candidate with no great intellectual scruples can find "evidence" to prove almost anything. In 1966 President Johnson made the statement that by voting for "motions to recommit" some Members of Congress vote to "kill" bills. As a longtime legislator, the President knew better. He knew that a motion to recommit with instructions is merely an effort to amend a bill and make changes in it.

When Republicans attacked the President's statement in House debate, he was defended by the Democratic Whip, Representative Hale Boggs (D-La.). Yet on the very next day Boggs voted to recommit the Supplemental Appropriations Bill and by so doing voted against (by the President's standards) such things as the Veterans Administration, the space program, and expenditures for Vietnam. In my own case, I have been accused of voting against the Head Start program–a principle I strongly favor. The truth is that I voted against the poverty program, one small part of which included the Head Start program and it was not possible to separate the issues. My vote was about like refusing to buy a 100-pound sack of potatoes because 99 pounds were spoiled. In 1964 I voted against the Elementary and Secondary Education Act on grounds that the allocation formula was faulty. Since then, after improvements in the law, I supported the Act on several occasions. Yet I was accused of voting against education.

I've often hoped that a fair and objective review board could screen statements made at campaign time and expose exaggerations and distortion. But the most reliable review board–the voting public–will make its decision at the polls–and this is where it counts!
